

Having fewer, larger companies controlling the access to and content of information and entertainment will REDUCE competition, INCREASE costs to consumers, and LIMIT the free expression of news, opinion and artistic production. Please do NOT relax restrictions on the concentration of media ownership – if anything, they should be increased.